

the front-line between the church and the wider community. Pray they will demonstrate Christ through compassion and availability to people who do not typically attend church. Uphold David as he leads the Assembly at Noblehill Primary School today.

Sa 24
Give thanks for the opportunities given to SU Scotland to reach out to young people across the whole of Scotland. Give thanks for this past season of ministry in our schools and pray into the coming summer programme of holidays and missions, that as the good news is shared, young people will eagerly respond to Jesus.

Su 25
Uphold David and Alistair as they preach respectively today "Believing Prayer" and "God's Promises Are Fulfilled In The Land". As the Discoverers have their Prizegiving this am, let's give thanks for all the children in our church and their leaders. Pray this week for Chris Withers, Chaplain, 16 Signals Regiment, Garloch Church and for Gerrard Street and Glenrothes Baptist Churches.

M 26
Pray for a special time of blessing and fun as Alistair and his three boys take a short break away together to celebrate Alistair's

50th year! Give thanks for the friends who have enabled this.

Tu 27
In this last week of term, give thanks for all the teachers and ancillary staff within our schools and for all they seek to do to enable young people to grow up as effective contributors to society. Pray that God might call more Christian young people into teaching.

W 28
Pray all the logistics and practical arrangements for the summer mission next week would be in place. Remember Sam and Abbey and all who will be leading, that God would enable and equip them to be a blessing.

Th 29
Give thanks for the role of BMS in training church leaders in Nepal and in supporting the local Christians. Pray for continued growth in the church in Nepal and for the freedom to worship.

F 30
Pray for all our young people who are leaving school to go on to university or college and will become future influencers in society. Pray they will make people of integrity, standing firm in their faith and living out their love for Jesus as they witness in word and deed, giving to others as they have been blessed.

Th 1
Pray for Louise as she says her goodbyes at Grace School in Dhaka and prepares to take on a new role in August as an educational advisor, helping to bring schools up to an improved standard by training teachers in improved teaching methods and in implementing new policies, then supporting them in their classrooms.

F 2
As today is SU International's 150th Anniversary Day Of Prayer, give thanks for all the countries SU Scotland is at work in, praying for effective communication, mutual fellowship and unity across different nationalities. Pray for Scott McMeeken and Caroline Kerr who Alistair is marrying at the Crichton Church today.

Sa 3
Praise God for our Who Let The Dads Out which reaches out intentionally and specifically to fathers and their children. Pray they will have a great time at the group this morning.

Su 4
Uphold Alistair as he preaches "Acting on the Holy Spirit's Prompting" on this Pentecost Sunday and Rev Lena Toff from the Scottish Baptist College as she leads our Focus Evening service. Pray this week for Rebekah Sharp, Chaplain, Queen Elizabeth University Hospital, Glasgow and for Easterhouse, Elgin and Ellon Baptist Churches.

M 5
Pray for a positive response to leaflets and flyers being delivered to schools and other churches this month about our Gillbrae summer mission. Pray for enough volunteers to enable all practical arrangements to be put into place for the mission.

Tu 6
Pray for a time of challenge and encouragement as Alistair and David attend the Baptist Ministers' Conference in St Andrews for 3 days. Uphold Alistair as he helps to lead and takes on the role of chairman on the last day.

W 7

Pray for our secondary pupils, that they would be focused and remain calm under exam pressure, for those with low self-esteem and difficult home circumstances, for guidance and wisdom for those who will be leaving school this summer.

Th 8

Pray for wisdom, unity and God's leading as the Search Team meet this evening to agree a shortlist for interviewing the Youth and Community Worker post candidates.

F 9

After the General Election yesterday, whichever political party may be in power, let's pray for our politicians that they would use their position of influence to address the needs of our nation. May they serve the communities to which they have been elected with passion and integrity.

Sa 10

Give thanks for volunteers who give willingly and sacrificially to serve at SU summer holidays and missions. Pray remaining team shortages may be quickly filled so plans and logistics can be finalised this month.

Su 11

Uphold Jean Scott who is speaking at our All Age Children's Ministry Celebration

Service this am and Alistair as he preaches "God's People Occupy The Land" this evening. Remember David today as he preaches at both services at Strathaven Evangelical Church. Pray this week for Jim Simpson, Chaplain, Royal Cornhill Hospital Aberdeen, The Lighthouse Church in Forres and for Falkirk and Erskine Baptist Churches.

M 12

Thank God for the gift of His word and that it is a constant source of support and wonder for us. Ask for wisdom and guidance for Alistair and David as they spend the next two days in Helensburgh preparing the preaching programme for 2018.

Tu 13

If suitable candidates have been identified for our Youth and Community Worker post, the Search Team will meet tonight, chaired by Alistair, to finalise the interview weekend arrangements

W 14

Praise God for our hard working, servant-hearted students who have lived out their faith through this academic year, acting upon the vision to give every student the opportunity to hear and to respond to the gospel message. Uphold Alistair as he takes part in a Chaplaincy meeting at St Joseph's today.

Th 15

As the Scottish Respond

Rwanda team is significantly larger than on previous trips, pray for wisdom for the leaders as they deal with new challenges in the planning and logistics. Remember the staff at SU Rwanda as they prepare to host the young people.

F 16

Give thanks that BMS have found someone to look after Phil and Louise's flat in Dhaka and Phil's work while they are back in the UK over the summer. Pray they will be able to focus on their Home Assignment, whilst having time for rest and family. Praise God they will be with us at DBC this Sunday.

Sa 17

Ask God to give clarity and unity to the Search Team and that He would identify and lead to the person of His choosing as the interview weekend takes place for our Youth and Community Worker post.

Su 18

Uphold Alistair as he preaches "Growing The Christian Community" this am and David preaching "God's People Rest in the Land" this eve. Pray this week for David Vogan, Chaplain, Nethervale Care Home, Auchloch and for Fraserburgh Fort William and Galashiels Baptist Churches.

M 19

As many families celebrated

Fathers' Day yesterday, pray for children who do not have a father or father-figure in their lives, that they will find other positive male role models in their families, schools, clubs and churches.

Tu 20

Remember fathers in families where relationships have broken down and they are separated from their children. Pray they will not feel hurt and alienated but will receive the advice, support and encouragement they need to restore and maintain relationships with their children.

W 21

Uphold Andrew Rideout as he chairs the DBC Ministry Purpose Group meeting this evening. Pray more folk in the fellowship would share their God-given gifts and passions to serve the needs of our community as we seek to demonstrate God's love, as individuals and as a church, in practical ways.

Th 22

Pray that students who take on leadership roles within their sports clubs will be distinct and godly in the way they lead. Pray this will enable them to have gospel conversations and to lead friends to Christ.

F 23

Give thanks for chaplains in our schools, sports clubs and other community groups who are on
